 Communities and Local Government: Housing: Construction

Written Answers

Sarah Wollaston (Totnes, Conservative)

To ask the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government if he will publish guidance on when local planning authorities can refuse applications for major housing development that predetermine decisions to be made in local plans; and if he will make a statement.

Nicholas Boles (Grantham and Stamford, Conservative)

The existing guidance on prematurity, set out in the "Planning System: General Principles", is included in the review of government planning practice guidance.
