A big thank you to the Obesity Health Alliance (OBA) for taking time to meet with me today. The OBA is a coalition of 30+ organisations working together to tackle obesity in Britain. We talked extensively about why the government's obesity plan needs to go further and about what we need to do as a nation to fight obesity in the United Kingdom.