It was fantastic to meet with Debbie and Alison from Barnardo's to talk about their new project, 'Believe In Me' which aims to show off the incredible things that children who may not have had the best start in life can do.