National Assembly of Korea

It was a privilege to meet with Na Kyung-won, chair of the Special Committee on Low Birthrate and Aging Society in the National Assembly of Korea and some of her colleagues. Korea and the UK share many similar demographic challenges as our populations’ age and we must find sustainable long term funding and systemic solutions which enable older people to live independently and with dignity for as long as they can.