

Parliament's Education Service

This afternoon I spoke to teachers from across the country about my work as an MP and my experiences as a Chair of the Health Select Committee. This event was arranged by Parliament's Education Service