The Committee met today to discuss the NHS Long-term Plan: legislative proposals

This was a very relevant and interesting hearing where we discussed the use of medicinal cannabis. We considered the following questions: What does the current evidence base tell us about the efficacy of medicinal cannabis? What plans are there for research into the medicinal use of cannabis, and what challenges are faced by that research?