Future of Town Centres and High Streets

Sarah Wollaston (Totnes, Conservative)

Does the hon. Gentleman agree that our high streets have a wider role in supporting local supply chains and increasing local resilience? In some areas, there is still a threat not only from out-of-town developments but from large distribution depots, which are merely displacing jobs rather than creating new ones.

They Work For You

Hansard